April Chapter

Georgia and Jas spy on Lindsay to see if Lindsay is faking her engagement with Robbie. After Georgia's father calls, she says that she wishes parents wouldn't make their kids sad and angry at the same time. The objectives of these questions are to discuss why Georgia went to such great lengths to find out about Lindsay and Robbie and to discuss the significance of Georgia's comment about parents.

1. What do Georgia and Jas do in the first half of the April chapter? Why?

2. Is Georgia's plan a prudent one? Why? Is there any other way she could have gotten the same information? If so, how?

3. Why does Georgia go to such great lengths to find out if Lindsay is faking her engagement with Robbie? Why is she so obsessed with the idea?

4. What do you think Georgia would do if she found out Lindsay really was engaged to Robbie? Why? What, if anything, will change if Georgia discovers that Lindsay is faking her engagement?

5. How does Georgia feel about her father after their phone call at the end of the April chapter? Why?

6. How often does Georgia feel this way about her parents? When does it usually happen? Why?

7. What does Georgia's father do that makes her angry at the end of the April chapter? What makes her sad? Why does she wish that her parents wouldn't do that?

8. Do you think that this is a typical teenage emotion? Why or why not?
