

English 8
Angus, Thongs and Full-Frontal Snogging
Louise Rennison

Name: _____

March Chapter

Georgia has a mishap with her mother's razor in the March chapter, and other beauty mishaps earlier in the novel. At the end of the March chapter, Georgia reunites with Jas after their argument. The objectives of these questions are to discuss how Georgia's recurrent ineptitude fits in with her coming-of-age throughout the course of the novel and to discuss whether Georgia should have forgiven Jas so easily for betraying her.

1. What mistake does Georgia make in the first half of the March chapter? What is she trying to accomplish?

---

---

---

---

---

2. What other beauty mistakes does Georgia make throughout the course of the novel? What do these mistakes tell the reader about her character?

---

---

---

---

---

3. In what ways is Georgia changing and maturing? How do her recurrent beauty mistakes relate to her changing level of maturity?

---

---

---

---

---

4. What is Georgia learning about herself through the course of these experiences? In what way is it helpful for her? What do you think is the downside to these learning experiences?

---

---

---

---

---

5. How quickly does Georgia end up forgiving Jas for her betrayal? Why?

---

---

---

6. Do you think that Georgia should have forgiven Jas so easily for going out with Robbie? Why or why not?

---

---

---

---

7. Do you think Jas actually did anything wrong? Was Georgia's anger with her justified? Why or why not?

---

---

---

---

---

8. Do you think that Georgia would have forgiven Jas so quickly if she had actually begun dating Robbie? Why or why not?

---

---

---

---