Chapter 4 Terms Activity

Read your text to match the definition with the term from your review sheet. Write the term with its definition in your exercise book.

1. A name given to the Newfoundland legislature in 1832 because there was so much quarreling that little work could be done.

2. A union created to protect the rights of fishermen.

3. A school system organized on the basis of religious denominations.

4. A term used to describe the day the bank crashed in 1894.

5. The place where Newfoundland's elected representatives met in the 1800's.

6. Newfoundland's first newspaper.

7. The leader of the Anti-Confederates in the 1869 election.

8. Newfoundland's first premier.

9. Constructed much of Newfoundland's railway.

10. This energetic reformer set up a medical practice in St. John's.

11. The leader of the Confederates in the 1869 election.

12. The area from Cape Ray to Cape St. John where the French had the right to fish.

13. The founder of the FPU.

14. This reformer owned a trading company, and served as Colonial Treasurer.

15. The first naval governor to winter in Newfoundland. When he died his body was sent back to Britain preserved in rum.

16. The system of government granted to Newfoundland in 1824 which included a civil governor and a council.

17. The system of government granted to Newfoundland in 1855 which placed real power in the hands of the people.

18. The system of government granted to Newfoundland in 1832 where the appointed governor and council had the final say in making new laws.

19. A term used to describe Newfoundland joining Canada.

20. An area that elects a representative to a seat in government.

21. This term means you do not have the right to vote.

22. This governor could seek advice from the appointed council but did not have to follow it.

23. A five-day incident in 1880 when residents of C.B.S. resisted railway survey crews, fearing the loss of their land.

24. The term used to describe the period of widespread poverty from 1816-1818.

25. This governor of Newfoundland received the title of "Excellency."