

Narrative Assignment

Create a narrative according to the guidelines from your notes.

It must contain a minimum of five paragraphs with approximately 250-500 words or 1-2 double spaced typed pages (2-4 hand written on unlined paper).

The narrative must include a title page with your name, course, teacher's name and date submitted.

You will be marked on the following criteria:

- Your five paragraph essay must be completed according to the structure that has been given to you in your notes.
- You must have a clear thesis statement with the appropriate supporting ideas in each of the body paragraphs.
- Each body paragraph must have a clear topic sentence.
- Effort should be given to use transition words to give your essay flow and readability.
- You must either type your essay or write it on unlined paper, both of which must be double spaced.
- Your essay must have a cover page
- Your mark will be based on content, structure and overall appearance

Suggested topics can include:

1. Talk about one technology that you feel as though you could never live without. Is it television? Text messaging? The game Pong? Detail your obsession with this technology and write about a week in which it is taken away from you.
2. Imagine that television, movies, etc. were never invented. How would your family have spent the evening time when you were growing up?
3. What if you created the next new important technology? What would it be and how would it change the world? Be creative here, don't just make up something that would be a two-day fad and then pass. I'm talking about the next iPod here people :).
4. How do you feel as though technology has changed your relationships with other people? Do you consider your interpersonal connection better or worse with the innovations of texting, Twitter, Facebook, and the like? Be specific and cite several examples.
5. Any other topic that relates to technology, but it must be approved by your teacher.
